

Burns Management Course 2022 Application Form

Fiona Stanley Hospital Burns Unit and DPMU are pleased to announce the continuation of the Regional Burns Management Courses in 2021 for WA Health staff.

This six-hour course is relevant for Doctors, Nurses, Paramedics, Health Workers and Hospital Response Teams. This is a free, non-catered event.

Content includes:

- Pre-transfer management and stabilisation
- Minor burn managed locally with Burns Telehealth support
- Surgical management of burns
- Post-discharge rehabilitation and wound management at regional centres
- Burns prevention and first aid
- Airway and inhalation injury
- Circulation and fluid resuscitation
- Burn wound assessment, management and dressings
- Chemical and electrical burns, major burns
- Burns scarring and scar management
- Pain and itch in burn patients
- Psychosocial aspects of burn care

	Course Date	Application Closing Date	Location
<input type="checkbox"/>	28 February 2022	31 January 2022	Bunbury
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>

Applicant Details:

Full Name Organisation
 Occupation Date
 Email Address

Approving Managers details (you must have managerial approval before attending this course.)

Full Name Organisation
 Position Date
 Email Address

Please scan completed form and email to DPMUTraining@health.wa.gov.au

Submit