

International Day of People with Disability 2020

"Not all Disabilities are Visible"

3 December 2020
Fiona Stanley Hospital

More than 170
attendees

6+ External sites (video and teleconference)

Event Feedback

100% of attendees agreed the presentations were interesting and a valuable use of time

"listening to people with lived experience of disability and how they cope and thrive"

Stephanie Coates, Maxine Wardrop, Paul Forden,
Robyn Collins, Fiona Payne, Dr David Russell-Weisz

Artist Desmond Woodley
Jigalong Sunset, 2017, acrylic on canvas.

Disability Health Network and South Metropolitan Health Service collaborated with DADAA to provide an art exhibition of celebrated artist Desmond Woodley which was extremely well received. DADAA is a not for profit organisation that provides access to arts and culture for people with disability. The display of artwork provides another medium through which people living with disability are provided a voice.

Guest Speakers and Organisers

Stephanie Coates, Grace Mills, Earl Pilgrim, Maxine Wardrop,
Fiona Payne, Stuart Jenkinson, Marlene Parry, Jaymie Arthurson

Disability Health Network 2021 Focus Areas

Session Program

Welcome and MC
Maxine Wardrop

Opening
Paul Forden

COVID-19 response to support people with disability
Dr David Russell-Weisz

WA Disability Strategy and Action Plan
The Hon Stephen Dawson

Disability Discrimination
Commissioner
Ben Gauntlett

A journey in progress
Stuart Jenkinson

Even if I won the lotto
Earl Pilgrim

A conversation with...
Grace Mills