

Discipline Policy

1. Purpose

The Discipline Policy specifies the principles and minimum requirements with which Health Service Providers must comply to ensure a fair, reasonable and consistent approach to the management of matters that may concern a breach of discipline relevant to Part 11 of the Health Services Act 2016 (HS Act).

This Policy does not apply to unsatisfactory and substandard performance or grievance matters, the requirements for which are set out in the Managing Unsatisfactory and Substandard Performance Policy MP 0041/16 and the Grievance Resolution Policy MP 0116/19 respectively.

For the purpose of this policy a breach of discipline is as defined in section 161 of the HS Act:

An employee commits a breach of discipline if the employee:

- (a) disobeys or disregards a lawful order; or
- (b) contravenes –
 - (i) any provision of this Act applicable to that employee; or
 - (ii) any public sector standard or code of ethics; or
 - (iii) a policy framework;
- or
- (c) commits an act of misconduct; or
- (d) is negligent or careless in the performance of the employee's functions; or
- (e) commits an act of victimisation within the meaning of the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2003 section 15.

This Policy is a mandatory requirement under the Integrity Policy Framework pursuant to section 26(2)(l) and section 19(1A) of the HS Act.

This Policy supersedes Discipline Policy MP 0040/16.

2. Applicability

This Policy is applicable to all Health Service Provider employees.

Professional conduct matters related to contracted medical practitioners, as Staff Members, are to be managed through the Disputes About the Professional Conduct of a Contracted Medical Practitioner Engaged Under a Medical Services Agreement Policy, which specifies this process.

3. Policy requirements

For all complaints or incidents which may concern a breach of discipline, Health Service Providers must ensure:

- a consistent process for the assessment and management of suspected breaches of discipline is applied
- appropriately skilled officers in the Health Service Provider assess and manage the matters
- the process for all notifiable and reportable conduct and non-reportable or non-notifiable matters that are in the public interest and/or for the protection of patients and/or a serious risk to patient safety, are concluded to a finding and identification of any proposed action, (including Disciplinary Action) as soon as reasonably practicable in accordance with section 163 of the HS Act
- documented arrangements exist for the processes related to the:
 - receipt of complaints, or any information received regarding a staff member's conduct
 - assessment of the information conducted for the purpose of meeting notifying obligations pursuant to Corruption Crime and Misconduct Act 2003 (CCM Act) and the Notifiable and Reportable Conduct Policy MP 0125/19
 - investigations
 - appointment of the decision maker and any change to the decision maker
 - recording of all decisions made and that decisions are transparent and capable of review, including the rationale for the decision that reflects their assessment of the seriousness of the matter
 - management of case records.
- all matters that may concern a breach of discipline are recorded in the System Manager Case Management System (CMS), as soon as reasonably practicable, in accordance with the CMS Protocols
- all disciplinary matters are concluded as soon as reasonably practicable
- procedural fairness is applied and as a minimum:
 - all involved officers, including the decision makers and investigators, act fairly and without bias, and do not hold a vested or direct personal interest in the outcome of the process
 - any allegations are provided in writing, in sufficient detail to enable a respondent to know what is alleged and have a reasonable opportunity to present their case in response, prior to the making of a finding
 - the respondent is advised of the proposed disciplinary action and given reasonable opportunity to respond
 - the respondent's response is considered prior to the finalisation of any disciplinary action taken in relation to a finding
 - the respondent is provided with the final outcome in writing
 - decisions are based on logically probative evidence and the balance of probabilities
 - irrelevant considerations are not taken into account in making the decision.
- within 30 days, for all matters pursuant to:
 - section 167(1) of the HS Act, the respondent must be notified

- section 167(2) of the HS Act, the Department CEO must be notified.

All Health Service Providers must ensure their staff members comply with confidentiality requirements if a party to a Discipline Process.

A breach of this mandatory policy by an employee may constitute a breach of discipline.

4. Compliance monitoring

Health Service Providers must provide on a six monthly basis to the Department CEO, via the Chief Executive or Health Service Provider Board, an aggregated report, based on data contained within the System Manager CMS including but not limited to, trend analysis related to discipline.

The System Manager may:

- request from a Health Service Provider a copy of the documented arrangements for the management of conduct which may concern a breach of discipline
- review CMS data associated with matters that may concern a breach of discipline
- in consultation with the Health Service Provider, monitor and review matters for assurance purposes, in relation to:
 - Public Sector Discipline Standard
 - the minimum requirements for Procedural Fairness
 - decision making that is transparent and reviewable.

The System Manager may provide system-wide aggregated reports to oversight agencies of all Health Service Providers about matters which may concern a breach of discipline, in the form the Department CEO sees fit, using the CMS data and in consultation with the Health Service Providers.
