

Managing your medicines when leaving hospital

It is important that you understand how to look after yourself when you return home from hospital. Before you leave, ask for our handy brochure “How to manage your medicines after going home from hospital”.

